

It has been 816 hours
816 hours since they took my mom
I've been sitting here ever since
I keep hearing about someone named Irena
It's been 98 days since I've seen dad
They took him to a different place
They never told me how he was doing
I hope he's okay
It's been 127 days since I've had freedom
Since they took us from our home
Mom said it was temporarily
Maybe it's not
It's been 26 weeks since I've been to school
I hope my friends will have good stories to tell when I get back
I forgot everything I learned
Maybe I'll have to redo a grade
It's been 2 years since some funny looking guy showed up on the TV
He has a weird mustache
Mom said he put us here
I guess that means he's bad

It's been 817 hours since I've seen mom
I wonder when she'll come back

I wonder if I'm next

I wonder when I'll leave this place
