This program is presented in cooperation with the

The opportunity to hear the first-person account of a Holocaust survivor is often a once in a lifetime experience. Join us on May 5, 2016, as Manuela Mendels Bornstein shares her story.

Manuela Mendels Bornstein was born in Paris, France, to a Dutch father and a German mother. In July 1942, the French police concentrated 13,000 Jews in the Velodrome d'Hiver sports arena in Paris for days without food or water before deporting them to Auschwitz-Birkenau. Life for Manuela and her family changed dramatically when they narrowly escaped this major deportation through the help of some friends who were active members of the French resistance.
