

Volunteer Enrichment

February 5, 2014 - February 27, 2014 - March 4, 2014

Welcome and Introductions

- Welcome from the Executive Director
- Introductions
- What have we done so far?
- What plans are already made for the future?
- What are our strengths and limitations as a government agency?
- What is our role when representing the organization?
- When are we officially representing the organization?

Standards and Guidelines for Holocaust Education

- Creating templates for educator activity and programming
- Branding
- Vetting all programs and materials
 - Historical accuracy
 - Age appropriate pedagogy
- Alignment with USHMM Guidelines for Teaching the Holocaust
- Alignment with Mission and Strategic Plan

Volunteer Resources

- Review Volunteer Resources webpage www.holocaust.georgia.gov/volunteer-resources
- Online Calendars
- Library
- Library “Wish List”

Exhibit Initiatives

- Photo Activity
- The educational objective of this exhibit: to educate students and visitors the consequences of hate, prejudice, and discrimination through the lessons of the Holocaust.
 - Hate and discrimination are taught. They are not inborn traits, beliefs, behaviors.
 - They were ordinary people. Hitler and the Nazis did not act alone.
 - They made choices. Explore behaviors, not categories of people.

Updated Tour Format

- ID Card activity