The Museum of History and Holocaust Education at Kennesaw State University and the Georgia Commission on the Holocaust, in cooperation with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, present a two-day professional development event that will provide teachers with resources and pedagogical approaches to teach about the Holocaust.

IN COOPERATION WITH

Museum of History
& Holocaust Education

The workshop is free of charge and includes books and resources from the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. Educators will receive one PLU for ten hours of attendance. An additional PLU will be issued on completion of a project.

Dinner will be provided on Thursday, and continental breakfast and lunch will be provided on Friday.

To register or for more information, visit historymuseum.kennesaw.edu.

For questions, contact Richard Harker, Education and Outreach Manager, Museum of History and Holocaust Education, Kennesaw State University, at rharker@kennesaw.edu

This workshop has been made possible with support from the David and Fela Shapell Family Foundation.
