

GEORGIA COMMISSION ON THE HOLOCAUST

CREATIVE ARTS STUDENT CONTEST

LIBERATION What Have We Learned 70 Years Later?

All middle and high school students in Georgia are invited to enter the Georgia Commission on the Holocaust's annual Creative Arts Student Contest.

Research All entries must be accompanied by a Works Cited page with a minimum of three total sources: one testimony, one photo/map/film clip, and one encyclopedia article. Research is limited to the resources provided at <https://holocaust.georgia.gov/2015-required-works-cited>.

Create All entries must reflect the contest theme and represent the independent effort of the student. Before creating your entry, please carefully review the requirements and guidelines posted online at <https://holocaust.georgia.gov/2015-student-contest-guidelines>.

Submit All entries must be accompanied by a Contest Submission Form. First through third place winners will be recognized at the Days of Remembrance ceremony in the State Capitol on April 17th, 2015.

For more information and details on how to submit, please visit www.holocaust.georgia.gov/2015-student-contest.